filed with the secretary of state.

With ashen face and trembling hand,
Senator Jotham P. Allds' accuser read from a typewritten statement, giving his reasons for severing his official connection with the Senate, while his fel-low senators listened with intense inter-est. When he had finished, he sent his resignation to the desk and quickly left the chamber.

Conger's statement follows:considered by members of this body, whose duty it was to help make the selection, and after they had expressed their views concerning his unfitness for the place, I was asked to declare my nosition.
